Summary of reasons for decision:

The text file is deemed to be objectionable because it promotes and supports bestiality. It explicitly describes sex between women and dogs. It is obviously intended to sexually arouse readers and create and encourage an interest in sexual acts with animals. The objectionable classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression contained in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 but is consistent with Parliament's clear intention to prevent material that promotes and encourages bestiality from being publicly available.
